Dear Mr Wilson,

RE : Case Number : HQ06X00676
Mr Dean Richard Wilson Trading As Curriculum Vitae Site v Barclays Bank Plc

I am directed by Master Rose to refer to your letter addressed to him dated 22nd June 2006, and to your letter addressed to the Court Manager dated 19th June 2006 which letter Master Rose has also seen.

Master Rose wishes to make in plain that in so far as you complain of professional misconduct on the part of the Solicitors acting for the Defendant in the above-mentioned claim in which he is the Assigned Master, your complaint should be addressed not to the Court but to the professional body governing the conduct of Solicitors. I note that copies of both your letters have also been sent to The Law Society.

Master Rose considers that copies of both your letters and of this reply should be sent to the Solicitors acting for the Defendant and I enclose a copy of my letter to them today.

I am also directed by Master Rose to acknowledge receipt of your letter to the Court dated 26th June 2006. In so far as you seek an extension of time for complying with the Order of Master Rose dated 14th June 2006 to file and serve written evidence complying with PD 32 Paragraph 28.3 you are directed to issue an Application Notice under Part 23 of the Civil Procedure Rules for that purpose.

Again, I am sending a copy of your letter dated 26th June 2006 to the Defendant's Solicitors. Would you please ensure that if and in so far as you correspond with the Court in relation to the above-mentioned claim, you copy such correspondence to the Defendant's legal representatives.

Yours sincerely,

Chris Cookman
