5TH July 2006

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Mr Dean Richard Wilson trading as Curriculum Vitae Site v Barclays Bank PLC
Claim No. HQ06X00676

During a telephone conversation that I had with a member of staff at the court earlier today, I was advised that due to the fact that I have not yet received the order from Master Rose confirming the hearing that will be before him this coming Friday 7th July 2006 at 12:00 noon, it would be necessary for me to contact the defendants solicitor to let them know the time and date of the hearing.

Having finished the call with the court, the defendants solicitor Mr Sean Barton coincidentally telephoned me a couple of minutes afterwards to acknowledge receipt of some documents that I had sent to him recently.

Whilst on the phone, I informed Mr Barton of the hearing this coming Friday and he has told me that he would contact the court to request to have the hearing vacated.

Having made it clear that I would not give my consent to this request, Mr Barton's response was that if the hearing wasn't vacated then he probably just "wouldn't turn up".

For the record, please be advised that I wish to confirm that I do not give my consent to have the hearing listed on Friday 7th July 2006 at 12:00 noon in room E118, to be vacated.

Yours faithfully,
